Growing Up: Farm Life Basketball in the 1940s 50s (Paperback)

By Harold L. Schoen

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . FROM A FAMILY OF 15 ON A FARM WITH NO ELECTRICITY, INDOOR PLUMBING, OR CENTRAL HEAT TO 1962 NIT CHAMP UNDER LEGENDARY DAYTON COACH TOM BLACKBURN A story of a long-gone world of working with neighbors, radio entertainment, few telephones, unsupervised play, and sports just for fun; of attending college via a basketball scholarship; of struggles to adjust to college life, to make the team and then to win the NIT. Hal was born in 1941. His mother and her siblings spoke German to each other into the 2000s, even though their ancestors had lived in west-central Ohio for over 150 years. No one in the family before him had attended college. Neither parent graduated from high school. From age seven or eight, Hal milked several cows by hand every morning and evening. He helped his parents and others in their neighborhood group to thresh wheat and oats and to butcher hogs among many other farm chores. Few farmers in the area had telephones until the mid-1950s, so the adults had to be constantly prepared for drop-in visits from family and...
