What happens when your life finally hits the brink of despair and the only foreseeable change in your life is a sweat-stained mattress in detox, a jail cell or, for some of you hardcore cases, a cozy coffin. I'm just posing a question; not judging you. I have been to two out of three and come close to the third countless times. I'm just a guy with experience and a solution. This book is considered the scariest straight of the Christian self-help genre. The Invisible Path is a provocative, straight forward guide showing you how it is possible to cross over from the path of a messed up life, to that of a blessed life. It doesn't matter if people have placed you beyond the reach of redemption or even if your family has (secretly) given up on you after years of agonizing and helplessly watching the cycle of addiction invariably rob you of your life. It doesn't matter if everyone has kicked you to the curb because you are a friggen degenerate. None of this matters; because there is good news in the midst of all this turmoil and despair. And the Good News is my friends, Jesus Christ came to save people just like yourself. Matthew 9: 10-13 Even if your life hasn't descended to these depths of despair, everyone needs a Savior, a Comforter on the pathway to Heaven. . . . This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
