

A Twelve Year Grand Tour (Paperback)

By Marty Wildberger

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book contains a series of light and mostly humorous vignettes that narrate incidents and activities in my life at Fordham College, in the U. S. Navy, and in between. Included are: how I explored Fordham, both above and below ground; my part in the New York City art scene circa 1950; my adventures on several hitch-hiking trips; my summer as a union pipe fitter; another summer spent climbing the fuel pipes at the Bethlehem Steel Company; how I may have had too many credits to graduate, but won the University Poetry Contest anyway; how I had to prove I d been baptized in order to get married; how I learned engineering and helped invent a new missile at the Martin Aircraft Company; how I completed three Navy schools, became a father and an Airborne Combat Information Center Officer; how I became known as the king of cumshaw; how the inspection team found too many light bulbs and all the electronic spare parts on the east coast in my repair shops; how I won a sewing machine playing poker in...
