Excerpt: . the issues against the plaintiff, and rendered judgment accordingly, dismissing plaintiff's petition, from which judgment the plaintiff, after an unsuccessful motion for new trial and re-hearing, appealed to this court. From the foregoing statement it will be seen that there are three parties to the controversy besides the defendant, James: (1) the devisees in remainder of the testator, who are represented by the plaintiff; (2) the heirs at law of his widow, who are represented by her administrator; and (3) the defendant, Kate O. Anderson, who claims the fund in question to the extent of $2,500, by virtue of the written assignment from Mrs. Hall, to secure her for an indebtedness on her part to that amount. The solution of the question, it will also be seen, calls for the proper construction of the will in question under the facts in evidence....
