

30 Years: A Diary of God's Unmerited Favor (Paperback)

By Gale Johnson Montgomery

Innovo Publishing LLC, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On May 3, 1979, I began the recuperation process from a radical mastectomy. It was a blessing to know that the malignancy had been caught in the very early stages and there would be no need for chemotherapy. However, breast cancer would be the first of life's challenges that would bring me to my knees in prayer over the next three decades. This book describes 30 years of fear-provoking situations that resulted in life-changing victories when God showed me unmerited favor and intervened. Time after time, I have looked back in amazement as I realized that He had been the orchestrator of my victories over breast cancer, bankruptcy, life-threatening illnesses, unemployment and foreclosure. This book was written to encourage others to trust God with today's circumstances. He is as real today as He was in the Bible. --Gale -----In June, 1988, Gale quit her secure job as a Personnel Analyst for Alameda County in Oakland, California, and moved to northern California. Why? Because she felt prompted by God to entrust her family's needs to Him. When she asked...
