Does it seem like its getting harder to find web marketing that works Do you struggle with getting new patients Are your competitors doing better than you in the search rankings Are you confused by all the new media choices The good news is, it doesnt have to be that way. Your website should be your most valuable and most efficient marketing asset. If it isnt, it is time for a change. David Larson has been in the web development and marketing business for the last twenty-two years. His straight up, no-nonsense method of communicating will lay out the pros and cons of each major online marketing decision so youll make informed decisions that will grow your practice. Youll Learn How To: - Manage the critical elements of dental marketing success - Assess what kind of web companies you should be working with - Avoid time and money wasters when it comes to online marketing - Zero in on the areas you need to focus on for patient growth This book is not another technical how-to book. Truth is, as the dental professional, you should not be building or running your website. You should be hiring and managing someone to run your website. Let David show you how your practice can flourish by leveraging the digital media! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
