BookBaby, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. I begin with lessons on the seven beatitudes which is an example of our Lord s character. I have included another sixteen lessons on the principles that Jesus taught in the Sermon on the Mount. There are twenty three lessons in all. These lessons are designed to help the leader of a home group or Sunday school class. You can also use them for your individual study. These lessons have thought provoking questions to help you see and evaluate where you are in your character development. This is a good study to be used in a discipleship class with new believers as well as the more mature ones. It will help ground the new believers in the word of God, and act to strengthen the more mature believers in their faith. Jesus says, Feed my sheep, so as a leader in the body of Christ you are called to do this. This guide can be used as a receipe book to feed God s people, and you can change the lessons as you want as long as you remain true to the scriptures. Some people follow a receipe exactly, but others can see some things that can make it better, so feel free to use this guide the best way that works for you and your group. In your home group or Sunday school class encourage everyone to share how God is using these lessons to help them grow in their faith. These lessons go right to the heart of Jesus teachings and reveals God s heart for you. If you learn these concepts, and meditate on them, they will change your life. If you are struggling in your walk as a Christian, this study will help...
