Chintamani Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Lalitamba was inspired by a pilgrimage through India. In the winter of 2004, we traveled from city to city in an effort to alleviate the suffering that comes from poverty, illness, and plain loss of hope. In India, the Divine Mother is called Lalitamba. She is looked to as the supporter of the universe. Lalitamba is a collectible journal of modern spiritual literature. This vintage first issue offers writings on emotional healing and spiritual growth. It opens with Samantha Holloway's short story Melinda Miller's Laugh, the tale of a woman who is relieved of a long depression by the silver light of her own laughter. The compilation also includes an excerpt from Kate Niles debut novel The Basket Maker. The piece tells of two children who imagine a Navajo reservation out of the dank basement in which they live. Lalitamba is also bold in its realism. Amira Salaam Amro's short story November, 1989 tells of an estranged couple who rediscover their love for each other as they come to terms with the fact that their youngest son is dying of AIDS. The collection suggests that we make the most of our life and our loves in each moment. Stephen Kopel's poem Intruder jokingly compares his minor hurts and major sorrows to a house that needs rearranging. Barry Ballard's poem The Silent Errand of Anything describes learning how to forgive.
