Pan Macmillan, Sydney, Australia, 2009. Softcover. Condition: New. 228 pages. Multiple copies of this title available. There has never been a more important time to save energy. Not only is it becoming more vital with every passing year to reduce our greenhouse gas emissions, but the rising price of energy is adding to the pain of households already hit by the Global Financial Crisis. The CSIRO Energy Saving Handbook shows us exactly what we can all do as individuals to cut our energy use without cutting back on our lifestyles. It is possible to be eco-friendly, save money and be just as comfortable! In an easy-to-read style, this book offers practical advice on how to measure and reduce your carbon footprint in all aspects of modern living. CSIRO is at the forefront of research into our impact on the planet and what we can do to help tackle climate change. It is crucial that we each start doing our bit now to help the planet (and our wallets!). The CSIRO Energy Saving Handbook is essential reading for the whole family - you will be amazed at how much each of us can do, and how much it can save us. Quantity Available: 3.
