TUMOUR (PAPERBACK)

Oolichan Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand New Book. In her seventh book of poetry, Evelyn Lau digs up her deepest fears to unearth the universal hope we all have - of a life that matters. Tumour s power lies in Lau s ability to talk about the things we dont like to talk about, the things we avoid with lotions and potions and self-medication. Tumour compels sober self-reflection and shining light into the corners of the mind. In the book s first part, Lau roots through the forces of life that shaped her - the family legacy, the cultural inheritance. The second part parses how these histories sculpt the present. The rose-coloured glasses of youth are replaced with the lenses of middle age, which sharpen the world s edges. With trenchant observations and unparalleled imagery, Tumour.
