Excerpt from Twenty Thousand Miles by Land and Sea After Charles Dickens had visited Niagara Falls, and Viewed them from Table Rock, he wrote Then when I felt how near to my Creator I was standing, the, first effect, and enduring one - the instant and the lasting - of the tremendous spectacle was peace - peace of mind, tranquillity, calm recollections of the dead, great thoughts of eternal rest and happiness, nothing of gloom or terror. Niagara was at once stamped upon my heart an image of beauty to remain there changeless and indelible until its pulses cease to beat forever. And it is sublime ly true, you cannot rob a man of What he has seen. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
