Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Vocational Education, Plan of the State Board for Vocational Education, Vol. 1 The Assembly of Virginia of 1918, passed a law accepting the conditions under which the Federal aid provided by the Smith-Hughes Act to provide for the promotion of vocational education may be secured. The Virginia statute appropriated money to meet dollar for dollar the Federal funds for the following purposes: (a) For the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects. (b) For the salaries of teachers of trades and industrial subjects and home economics. (c) For the maintenance of courses preparing teachers, supervisors, and directors of agricultural subjects, and teachers of trades and industrial and home economics subjects. Under the Virginia Act. the State Board of Education is named as the State Board for Vocational Education and therefore assumes the responsibility, in co-operation with the Federal Board for Vocational Education, of carrying out the provisions of the Federal law. Previous to the opening of the present school year the Governor of Virginia, by proclamation, had accepted the provisions of the Federal Act. A committee of the State Board presented a carefully prepared plan for vocational education in Virginia, which plan was approved by the Federal Board. Under this plan eighteen or twenty high schools are operating departments of vocational education in agriculture and home economics and in the City of Richmond courses in the trades and industries as well as in home economics are maintained. The present plan is offered in order to define as clearly as possible the policy of the State Board for Vocational Education. It attempts to furnish pertinent information to local school boards or institutions which may...
