Excerpt from How the Uncared-for Epileptic Fares in Illinois: Colony Care the Remedy; A Plea for Immediate Legislative Action; How You Can Help This pamphlet calls your attention to a situation which urgently needs your help. Ten thousand of our fellow-citizens in the State of Illinois are afflicted with epilepsy. Many of them are suffering as the unhelped epileptic alone can suffer, and Illinois is fastening upon its future an incalculable burden because of the indifference which entirely ignores their needs and rights. The call comes from every quarter of this rich and powerful state. Not a day goes by that does not bring the tragedy of this situation to the doctor, the judge of the Juvenile Court, the visiting nurse, social workers, to the clergyman, to the officers of institutions. Helpless and sick at heart, they are obliged to turn the unfortunates away without help or promise, or else, as happens with sickening frequency, start the machinery that will send boys and girls with bright minds to the school for feeble minded, or to the insane asylum. This is singularly unjust when science and philanthropy have demonstrated that epilepsy yields most gratifyingly to colony care; that this affliction makes the sufferers particularly sympathetic and helpful to each other, and, moreover, that colony life affords cure for some, radical improvement to others, and to all, opportunities for employment, recreation and association. It restores in some measure what is denied outside, where they are shunned and refused employment. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
