Noeo: Book I (Paperback)

By Adam Stohlman

Outskirts Press, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A People s Poet With Perfect Pitch The first of a three-part collection of pieces from award-winning poet Adam Stohlman, this diverse and intriguing compilation of thirty poems, Noeo, Book I, displays Stohlman s mastery of language and lyricism, structure and style, as well as his steadfast insistence upon honesty and meaning in his work. Stohlman has been described as insightful, intuitive and evocative in his imagery, a strikingly versatile worker of words, and a modern-day McKuen with a touch of Frost, a dash of Donne and an echo of ee cummings thrown in. His poetry has been called refreshingly clear, concise and concrete, yet elegant, lyrical and compelling. His range is vast, both in style and subject matter. As a poet, Stohlman asserts that truth is objective, not subjective. It is only our individual experience that is subjective. Truth is absolute and universal. It is at those moments in our lives when objective truth meets with our subjective experience that we must either reconcile our experience with the truth, or find that our experience confirms the truth--whatever that truth may be. There are...
