Carl thought he d found it all in the bold and seductive Yolanda. The statuesque former model and current lingerie tycoon bulldozed his heart-and commandeered half of his Los Angeles homestead to add a creative studio. But Carl is too infatuated to care. He doesn t listen to his protesting parents or his best friend, Barbarian. All he cares about is Yolanda. Then Yolanda meets Peter. In a wink, Carl s out-and Peter s in. When Yolanda demands a divorce, Carl realizes he should never have married a businesswoman. She gets 50 percent of everything. Downtrodden and despondent, Carl is about to give up on love when he meets Leslie, a quirky teacher and therapist. And so- Yolanda s out. Leslie s in. But even though Yolanda s out of Carl s heart, she isn t out of his life. Their divorce settlement entitles her to half of the house, and Yolanda and Peter make themselves right at home. Carl and Leslie, meanwhile, try to make a home out of the other half-but are constantly stymied by Yolanda and Peter s devious machinations. In this darkly humorous tale, war breaks out in the Los Angeles hills as the four head for a bitter showdown.
