I stood like one enchanted, and the chorus of triumph rolled on and up among the tall old chimneys, and floated heavenward. Suddenly a hand waved from that upper window, and a few words were spoken in German of which I did not catch the meaning. In an inrttant every torch was extingushed, and as silent as specters, the dark-robed figures moved away. It was all wonderfully impressive to me, and when I came to understand that one of their number was dying, while they, as it were, winged the parting soul with songs of triumph, it became doubly so. That makes me think, said Maggie, of the Sabbath school song they used to sing at Lakeville, -- Oh, sing to me of heaven, When I am called to die; perhaps that student felt just like that. Can you sing the...
