Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address of the Majority of the Democratic Members of Both Branches of the Legislature of California: In Public Meeting Assembled in Convention, at Benicia, Feb y 1854 There are two classes of reasons which have brought us to these conclusions. First, because, under the Constitutions of the United States and the State of California, the present session is the legal and proper one in which to provide for the forthcoming vacancy; and, second, because the condition of the Democratic Party, assailed anew by the revived machinations of the Whigs and Democratic Bolters of the late campaign, require at our hands prompt action and sudden check. In that memorable contest, fellow-citizens, it was your steadfast fidelity to Democratic order, that saved our principles and preserved our ticket; and now, the same spirit is again required, both from you and from us, to frustrate this supplemental and desperate attempt to derange our discipline and deprive us of the richest prize of hard-earned victory. The epilogue of that contest is now being performed before us. It is directed in the main by the same characters, inspired by the same motives, conducted on the same principles, and worthy, we believe, of the same ignominious fate. We trace the connection between these incongruous elements from the date of the Secret Circular, which was to rive the Democracy in twain and construct on its ruins a Convention (Whig) Party; we follow a branch of the perturbed cabal into the late state Convention; thence, we behold it issuing to unite again openly in favor of Waldo and the Whigs; and now, we find both sections naturally fused together, and composing a phalanx, drilled for mischief, under Secret...
