Excerpt from Penal Discipline: Three Letters Suggested by the Interest Taken in the Recent Inquiry in Birmingham, and Published in the Daily News, 23rd, 24th, and 26th September. Sir, - Recent events having given a peculiar interest at present to the subject of prison discipline, and my name having been somewhat prominently brought forward in relation to it by the late inquiry at Birmingham, I wish much to avail myself of the opportunity to bring again before the public a brief, yet in some measure comprehensive sketch of the views which I have long entertained on the subject of criminal management. And if you will do me the great favour to admit this into your columns, you will much oblige me. I tender it with the more confidence, because my opportunities of studying the subject to advantage have been very great. I served eight years in the penal colonies, during four of which I commanded on Norfolk Island, their most penal settlement; and I was, two years since, governor of the Borough Prison of Birmingham, now so unhappily notorious.
