AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It s not for me to say exactly how bad or good this poetry is, that of course would be pretentious. I have to say and must say, however that I feel this is at least very authentic verse. Almost all it rhymes, yet, I like to think it has a voice and attempts a kind of mellifluous flow, if you will It s been very painful over the years, to witness insincere pseudo poetry sometimes thrive because of its author s name recognition while someone like myself with no public saliency is ignored by so called traditional publishers. Therefore, I m giving it one shot with AuthorHouse and will, if not successful, go back to being merely a pauper, a peasant, a pawn and a poker player! It s not a very long poem but the alliteration, I like to think creates an astonishingly nuanced yet bent throbbing winter romance scene. In, A Stone in a Pond, I try to convey the sadness I feel of how a bay is often adored by people standing near it who see it through their egos. But when it becomes less amorphous, grows into something g possibly wonderful yet different then them; if is scorned for not meeting their specific expectations. I haven t written any more poetry for many many years because of becoming weary of fighting unreceptive publishers. Yet, I ve read and adored many sincere poets like Poe and Kents. The movie Bright Star about John...
