Barack Obama: His Love and Dream for America: A Presidency Rising Above Conflicts and Challenges (Paperback)

By Raymond Sturgis

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Here we are in the twenty-first century and one man named; Barack Obama has changed the meaning of democracy and freedom for a lifetime. Unfortunately, like progress and freedom, negative people want to question Barack Obama his citizenship, competence and duty to serve as commander in chief. But those naysayers do not question their forefathers who were not citizens but established the constitution that protects us all. Barack Obama, our black and white president has showed the world and America that we are one and we can change the hinges of prejudice and indifference to a lofty paradise where all men can be treated equal. Now, many would say dreams are for dreamers and that America should go back to the days of extremism and conservatism, where fear and racism blinded the hearts of men. Then Barack Obama character said, . .I am just as white and black as you all, and freedom was in my mother and dreamed by my father, and I can lead America to glory., and President has done what he said. PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA eloquently...
