Born of extremely humble origins in the Smoky Mountains in eastern Tennessee, she went on to become a success story, speaking and entertaining all over the world. To get there, she endured many hardships, witnessed many miracles, and experienced extraordinary things, including: How the power of prayer healed both her mother and brother, mystifying doctors who had diagnosed their cases as terminal. How the power of knowing, having full faith in His plans, allowed her to live through the leanest, hardest times and gave her the power and humility to help others. Experiencing her dream of performing at the Grand Ole Opry. Associate producing network television shows. Inspiring and motivating, this joyous celebration of life and God s word is an uplifting experience unlike any other. Tell It Sister, Tell It: Memories, Music and Miracles is an empowering lesson in the healing nature of faith, the strength of belief, and the extraordinary effect one person s will can have on the world. Stella Parton is a member of one of...
