

Navigating Through the Maze of Grief (Paperback)

By Barbara J White

Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Is There Life After Loss? Grief-the word brings distress and suffering to your mind and every emotion in your soul. Your body is distressed almost beyond measure when your loved one goes to be with the Lord. The mental suffering and affliction is so painful that you wonder if it will ever cease. - Is there really life after loss? - How long will the grieving process last? - What can I expect along the road to recovery? - How do I develop a new vision for my future? - How do I face the bittersweet memories and move on with hope in my heart for a new beginning? This book will help answer those questions and teach you how faith in God's Word will hold you steady in spite of all the emotional pain and ups and downs of recovery. This is a personal journey of loss, living through a major life change after fifty years of marriage and ministry. It is the author's story of God's amazing grace and the sweet comfort of the Holy Spirit. You are...
