Excerpt from The Maritime Medical News, Vol. 18: A Monthly Journal Devoted to Medicine and Surgery; April, 1906 At a recent meeting of the Halifax and Nova Scotia Branch of the British Medical Association, a committee was appointed to arrange, if possible, to secure legislation to control the sale of patent medicines. Acting in conjunction with Dr. Ellis, M. P. P. Of Guysboro , a bill was prepared substantially upon the same lines as the Ontario bill, and submitted to the Nova Scotia Legislature. The salient features of the bill were that it required the formula of each medicine to be printed upon the label of the bottle, and that all preparations containing more than a stated percentage of certain poisonous drugs should be labelled Poison. Reviews

This book is definitely not easy to get going on reading through but extremely exciting to see. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am pleased to explain how here is the finest book i actually have read inside my individual daily life and may be he best book for ever.

-- Mrs. Ellie Yost II

It is an amazing publication which i actually have at any time go through. It really is wriiter in easy words and phrases rather than hard to understand. Its been developed in an extremely easy way which is merely following i finished reading through this pdf in which actually changed me, affect the way i think.
