iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book tells the story of an ordinary man who overcame numerous obstacles through hard work, determination and courage. As a child he was forced to work full time in the sugar industry. Yet, he persevered and went on to have a promising future. He and his wife produced nine very successful children. Rupert Davis is the embodiment of Jamaica s history: son of a white overseer on a plantation, black mother, Indian grandmother and great-grandfather a slave from the Ashanti tribe of Ghana. Thus he is an embodiment of Jamaica s motto: Out of Many One People. He also served in the Royal Air Force during World War 2, and had POW s under his command. After he retired from his job, he became the chairman of many boards and also became a Justice of the Peace.
