Excerpt from The Chicago Address: Signs of the Times, From the Standpoint of a Scientist; An Address Delivered at the First Methodist Church, April 26, 1888, Under the Auspices of the Western Society for Psychical Research And the first among the Signs of the Times is the Woman Question. That is, indeed, not only first, but also last, and al ways. This is a Sign whose full sig nificance we Shall see before I have done. And second, Spiritualism, well-named the Main stay of Religion and the Despair of Science. And third, Psy chical Research, to which we turn wistfully for light upon the deeper problems Of life. There is needed no Theosophy to discern in these three things a trinity of force that needs but some fulcrum on which to turn the world. These are the Signs of the Times we Shall question to-night, whether they be only surface ripples to pass with the idle winds, or whether, indeed, such tremors portend a violent upheaval of ground considered secure. Never yet has a throe Of nature come without fair war ning. Nothing is...
