It consists 19 Chapters and more than 144 photo and art works. You will find classical and gothic art of John the Baptist, Apostle John and figures of Jesus and Apostles. A primary theme is to compare or contrast John the Baptist and Evangelist John to be one and the same angelic entity. John the Baptist was rejected of the literature to be an orthodox religious figure. You find commentary to refuse a date to the Lord, and threats of death at persons; so to claim of them to be then perished. Herod was demanded to have been in an immoral marriage. Comments of rebellion led by him received less Bible verse. The cover of the text is Apostle John to stand over a fuming Chalice of wine. The book has series of art and photo work assembled in an angelic language. John survived boiling in oil by Rome in 96 AD and was banished to the Island of Patmos for a practice of witchcraft; where he authored the Book of Revelations. Each Chapter is led by one page introductions; including to find Biblical quotes about an entirely peaceful future. The unending death march gets zombie like art form to be comprehended of the paradox. Revelations is then read a sort of bad trip to heroin addicts; who attempt to dig by pick and shovel without a blink to be found. The interpretation is given to be one of extreme vanities. You will see advanced digital art of Saint Peter to hold out the keys to heaven. The Gospel of John is called non-canonical, and differs to the accepted or canonical Gospel...
