Ideas dominate the world and control matter, both in its essence, its origin, and its organization. In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God is the religious formula for expressing this fundamental scientific truth. The word is the connecting link between the ultimate fact, which IS spiritual, and the physical forces through which the ideational struggles to find its expression. Your presence in an institution of learning is the best evidence that you believe in the potency of ideas, -that art and literature, politics and industry, in any given society are What the prevailing system of philosophy makes them. The major premise on which my argument is based is this: that to wisely control and direct our energies we must get back of the manifold and con?icting capers that we...
