THE KNIFE OF SORROW

Trafford Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 94 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 0.3in. Launched into life like an iceberg, this ADD affected person navigates life on a sea of addictions until hitting the rocks of reality and melting. The melt down has as its consequences the dissolution of marriages, family, bank accounts, social standing and a whole lot more. Floating through life, leaving a debris field of broken marital relationships, shattered reputation, bewildered friends and acquaintances, and a few amused onlookers, Bill Farrell carried a lot of flotsam and jetsam to his meltdown point where it was released in a tide pool to serve as reminders of his life journey. Panning through this glacial tilth, Bill finds healing and life giving nuggets of lifes truths which he uses in sharing his strength, hope and experience with others. It is hoped that by identifying some of ADDADHD life traits this book reveals areas that others may resonate with and thereby get help for themselves before getting to the end of the line. No professional claims are intended or implied. . . this is MY story. A bold statement here where I say, I believe this will become a bestseller! You no doubt have heard this from other first time, new writers, and probably think to yourself, Yeah, right - this book stretches the definition of book writing and authorship The reason I make this statement is that the book, story, layout, printing, and all, show the earmarks of an Adult ADD Personality to such an extent a reader will have the feeling of having dealt one on one with an ADD person. They also will have felt the frustration and craziness that comes with that interaction. I am working with my Psychiatrist exploring the use of the book as an...
