

Choosing for a Change (Paperback)

By Gloria Hartman

Xulon Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We re all making choices and living in the results. Here is a new way of thinking concerning the choices we make. The phrase from the Bible, born again, means much more than just a ticket to heaven; in fact, the new birth presents us with a whole new way of responding to life. The way we have learned to make our choices from the time we were born into this world no longer needs to be the way we make choices after we are born again. We have the ability, after the new birth, to change many things in our lives by making choices based on who we really are now instead of who we used to be. This is a simple way of looking at life after the new birth. You really can change your choices and change your life! Gloria Hartman was in the pastoral ministry with her husband for many years and has been involved in teaching and preaching the Word of God, as well as church administration, leading worship, prayer meetings and Bible studies. Through that...
