Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Tar-Bo-Rah, 1916 In attempting to edit and publish this, the first volume of the tar-bo-rah, we felt at first as if we were embarking upon an uncharted sea. Waves of dith culty beat high around us; for we found the effort to produce a picture of student life not so easy as we had imagined in our first enthusiasm. It has been our aim to crystalize, . For the reader of this book, the individual traits, the pleasures and joys, which bind us to our school life. But not for the stranger alone have we worked; but for you, our classmates and schoolmates, that, when in coming years you turn the pages of this book, you may find upon them real Pictures of Mem ory of your own. However, we would never have been able to steer our little craft around the Scyllas of literary failure and the Charybdises of financial chaos without the aid of steady hands. While we were looking for some one to help us, Mr. Rimmer volunteered his services. He has Spent many hours helping us through the stormy places, and to him we owe the larger portion of our success. Our former teacher, Miss Liles, has given us some invaluable aid, for which we wish to take this means of showing. Our appreciation. we have to thank our faculty representative, Miss Council, for a large part of our success. She has been with us through many battles with the waves of disappointment and has marshaled us through to safety. Nor would we fail to express our gratitude to those busi ness men of Tarboro and elsewhere who have helped with their advertising -to make our...
