The digital copies of this book are available for free at First Fruits website. place.asburyseminary.edu/firstfruits PREFACE Most of the the sermons in this book have been preached in revival meetings, and at the great camp-meetings throughout the nation, and have been blessed of God in helping to lead many souls to salvation through faith in Christ. A large number of my friends in many parts of the country have insisted that I have them published in book form. I am having them published, and am sending them forth with the prayer and hope that they may prove helpful to all those who may read them. I am growing old, and have a desire that this book may carry a message of salvation to hungry human hearts long after I have ceased to speak. If in its pages the reader can find anything of interest and helpfulness I shall be grateful. I want the contents of this book to bear witness through the years to my undying faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal and all-sufficient Saviour. There sermons are but a poor expression...
