Excerpt: .in fire protection, and, as you all know, this is a difficult task when it is pouring down rain; most of them want to begin about a month after there is real danger from fires. However, in cooperation with Mr. Chapman, fire-patrol organizations covering seven counties were perfected, thereby increasing the number of counties in which associations existed to 11. The cooperation we have had under the Weeks law has been a very great help in getting these organizations together. For instance, last spring we organized one association in Douglas County, which covers a very large area. The central part of it is mostly farming country, and on either side, both in the Coast Range and Cascade Mountains, there are heavily forested districts. Between the farming districts and these large holdings of timber are what we call the foothills, which are burned over and covered...
