BY THE GRACE OF GOD: TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF PASTORING BLACK BAPTIST (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.By the Grace of God: Twenty-Five Years of Pastoring Black Baptists Do you every feel a little less than others, when it comes to ministry? Do you find yourself wondering are you the only one who wrestles with self-doubt, difficult people, and challenging circumstances? If you have answered yes to these questions then By the Grace of God is written with you in mind. This book shares the significant highs and lows that I have encountered in reaching my 25th year of Pastoring Black Baptists. Especially, those who have never Pastored Black Baptist may think that the title is too racists. However, I would argue that even though there is a significant amount of common ground among Blacks, Whites, Hispanics, Baptists, Pentecostal, and Methodists, each group has some significant differences. By the Grace of God is my story of regarding Black Baptists. Here Is A Preview Of What You ll Read About . - My driving a cab and sweeping floors - Catching rain water in a bucket during the worship service and losing the vote the vote to fix the hole - Having a young lady restrained from attacking the Pastor and members begging me to stay - Being kicked out of the Baptist Ministers Conference because of female clergy - The joy of building a facility for the Lord s glory - Pressing through a swamp of disappointments to get to dryer ground - Lessons for every believer - Lesson for every preacher - Much, much more! Purchase your copy today! Join those who have read - By the Grace of God - and discovered that things could be worse, and if you hang in there, God can make things better....
