

Billy Winter and the Last Changeling (Paperback)

By Ann Glaister

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It s the eve of Billy Winters thirteenth birthday. He s not expecting very much, he is the only child of parents, who would have much preferred it if he had the good manners to have been a rather lovely tabby cat than a screaming baby with a shock of white blonde hair. They already own countless cats, who take over every part of Billy s home, life and food! His parents had given up trying to keep the house clean years ago, as such Billy feels such shame when two girls from his class call round for help with their homework, that he runs from the house and finds himself stomping around the local churchyard, fuming at his life. It is there that Billy s life takes a strange turn. It starts to snow and out of the snow there forms a small creature who warns Billy of an event to come and hands him a crystal bowl for protection. He has no recollection as to how he gets home but he finds himself waking up the next morning...
