Bursting Through the Clouds: Life Reflections and Memories (Paperback)

By Theresa John

Bookstand Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A study in masterful creative nonfiction, Bursting Through the Clouds is Theresa John s compelling memoir of her childhood in the Jim Crow South and her journey to young adulthood in New York. These luxurious homes, monuments of slavery and later segregation, once only allowed black servants and handymen to enter from the rear. I remembered that Mama had entered some of these homes many times through similar back doors to do domestic work and tend to white folks children. Worn down from standing all day while ironing clothes and cleaning, she often brought clothes home in the evenings to iron so Mr. Duncan had clean fresh shirts and underwear for his week s work. So begins the life of Theresa John, born in Jim Crow-era Liberty, North Carolina to sharecroppers. Theresa s mother, left widowed with five children, struggles to feed her children and ensure they grow to be respectable adults -- with no time or inclination to indulge childish nonsense. Yet Misty Ann, as she is called by those who love her, is determined to live fully, whether it s in...
