Excerpt from The South African Mining Journal, Vol. 26: With Which Is Incorporated the South African Mines, Commerce and Industries; Part I., No. 1324, Feb. 10, 1917 Mr. L. B. Burns (director) in seconding the adoption of the report and accounts, and in referring to the future of the company, said: I cannot do better than recall to your recollection the concluding paragraph of Sir George Albu s report. He says: In conclusion, I desire to record my views that. Taking into account the abnormal expenditure to which we are at present subjected by reason of the war, and to which I have previously referred in detail, the results obtained from the mining operations of your company for the past financial year are Quite favourable, and that there is every reason to anticipate a prosperous continuance for many years to come. These words from across the seas speak for themselves. They express the considered judgment of the man who for so many years has successfully controlled our affairs on the other side. On that note of - I won t say optimism, but confidence and hope, I will conclude my remarks. I have much pleasure in seconding the resolution which has been moved by, the Chairman.
