Well-behaved women seldom make history. -Laurel Thatcher Ulrich Many awe-inspiring women have changed the course of history. From fighting for social justice and women s rights to discovering and shaping our amazing country, women have left an indelible mark on our past, present, and future. But it s not easy to affect change, and these women didn t always play by the rules to make a difference! Kathleen Krull blends history and humor in this accessible young biography series. Dolley Madison had a strong will and unique personality that made her one of the most memorable First Ladies. From hosting parties for Washington D.C. s social and political elite to saving a portrait of George Washington before the British burned down the White House in the War of 1812, Dolley did it all!.
