The Lives of the Twelve Caesars: Titus and Domitian (Dodo Press) (Paperback)

By C Suetonius Tranquillus

Dodo Press, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Gaius Suetonius Tranquillus (c70-c140), also known as Suetonius, was a prominent Roman historian and biographer. He is mainly remembered as the author of De Vita Caesarum (Lives of the Caesars, best known in English as The Twelve Caesars), his only extant work. The Twelve Caesars, probably written in Hadrian's time, is a collective biography of the Roman Empire's first leaders who were: Julius Caesar, Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian, Titus and Domitian. The work tells the tale of each Caesar's life according to a set formula: the descriptions of appearance, omens, family history, quotes, and then a history are given in a consistent order for each Caesar. Suetonius regarded emperors who amassed wealth for the public purse to be greedy, perhaps a reflection of the average Roman middle class attitudes.

Reviews

This book might be worthy of a go through, and a lot better than other. it had been written really properly and helpful. You may like just how the author writes this publication.

Completely essential read publication. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. You won't truly feel monotony at any moment of your time (that's what catalogs are for regarding should you question me).
