The special courses being given under Brown s Division of War Training are Open to Pembroke students, for it is becoming increasingly obvious that in such a national emergency as war there is as great a demand for women who are broadly and thoroughly educated and who have particular skills which they can put at the service of the nation and the community, as there is for men. Pembroke undergraduates are enrolled in courses in accounting, cryptanalysis, map reading and construction, mathematics for navigators, elementary meteorology, photography, Portuguese, radio, Russian, statistics and engineering drafting.
