

That They May Be One: A Divine Strategy for Christian Unity (Paperback)

By MR Cyprian U Agbazue N/A

Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Unknown to many God is working to reunite the Church. The first man was created with power to do almost anything - until sin came into his life. What followed was disunity in his body and then he lost the power. At the fullness of time God sent a man conceived, not by any other man, but by the Spirit of God so as to ensure that he side-tracked the hereditary sin that dogged all men, in order to start a new race of the new man. After his death, resurrection and departure those, he left started so well, working in complete unity, that in a short while their impact was felt in the whole world because of signs and wonders that confirmed their messages! In time, subsequent Church leaders lost focus, added to and diluted the earlier doctrines as recorded in the scriptures leading to divisions. Subsequently, the signs and wonders, the very ingredients that converted the first world almost disappeared! For centuries the Church prayed and expected rapture and the day of judgment even with the clear knowledge that most...
