The animals of Greenacres are feeling the pinch, money is in short supply, and it is affecting everyone. Raymond Rabbit, who runs the local shop is feeling it as much as anyone, and so is his friend Rosie. She runs the Orphanage, and the terrible weather has ruined her garden produce. She had hoped that the money from her produce would pay for the Orphan s Xmas presents. Raymond wants to help, and offers her a little more money for her vegetables. She cries herself to sleep night after night, knowing what a horrible Xmas it is going to be. The Orphanage is in a bad state of repair. Rosie Rabbit asks Mr. Brock, the Badger, to repair the building. Mr. Brock is the wealthiest animal in the forest, and offers to repair the building, as long as the bill is paid for, as soon as the job is done. Rosie says that it is not possible, due to lack of funds. Brock has plans for the Orphanage, but it is not what Rosie and the villagers want. Brock the badger owns a building firm, and has built, and owns, most of the houses in the village. He is not a popular animal, and has no friends, due to his arrogance and meanness. Then, Brock offers to buy the Orphanage, but Rosie s joy is short-lived, as Brock only wants the land to build houses, and plans to demolish the Orphanage. He informs the Trustees of the Orphanage, that the price he is willing to pay for the land, will be enough to build a brand-new orphanage, with a little left over. The trouble is, that the Orphanage, due to lack of...
