FREE BONUS INCLUDED INSIDE! In this exclusive book, Tony Mase, a serious student of the works of Wallace D. Wattles, who's best known for his classic masterpiece The Science of Getting Rich, shares with you three firsthand experiences, case studies if you will, illustrative of the most interesting and unusual ways things come to you when you're thinking and acting in accordance with Wallace D. Wattles' philosophy, in the Certain Way as he used to refer to it, regardless of whether you consciously realize that's what you're doing or not. The first two of these events happened prior to Tony's discovery of Mr. Wattles' writings (and/or their discovery of him), and only now, looking back upon them, does he fully comprehend how and why they happened the way they did. The third occurred soon after. Although Tony also shares a few life lessons he learned from these experiences, his primary intention of...
