Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Learn to see the Magic of your Life and appreciate every minute of it. We have compiled all necessary information that you will need, but in the end, everything will still be decided by how you act. Achieving success in life is something that everyone wishes to attain. However, saying you want it is different from actually working for it. Many people dream of escaping their current state and being hailed at the pedestal, but they have little to no idea at all of how to reach it, let alone know the things that they have to sacrifice in order to make their way there. It is something easier said than done, but does not mean that you should be discouraged from it. On the contrary, knowing what it takes to reach the apex of your life allows your mind to be more open for spiritual growth and maturity. Courage, intelligence, and wisdom are the three main skills that you will need the most as you ascend through the challenges of life, but they are just the starting lessons. The further you go through your life, the more you will realize how small you really are. And at the same time, you will discover how much potential lies inside you, undiscovered and untapped. There shall be challenges and pain, that s a fact, but also joy and enlightenment. The most important things that you will learn in life will be gained from paying attention to the details that most people take for granted. The goal of this book is to give you guidance as you open your eyes towards the world that you wish to explore. From small...
