Excerpt from William Whewell, D.D., Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, Vol. 2: An Account of His Writings, With Selections From His Literary and Scientific Correspondence Whittaker, who always asks whether I am reading. Wilkinson leaves Cambridge tomorrow and I rather think is going N. To stay for some weeks. Perhaps you may recollect a man of your college who took his degree a year or two back of the name of Thomas Briarly - do you know whether he is yet alive and in England? Since he left Cambridge there has not been anything heard of him. Communicate what intelligence you can concerning him as it is hoped he may yet possibly be in existence. At present I suppose you are teaching the young idea how to shoot are any of the young ideas that you have got likely to make good shots? Will any of them bring down a high wrangler? In Higgin I suppose you will not have a pupil who is bigoted to some theory or notion of his own. And Whitcombe? What manner of mathematician, - or (what is...
