

Fun Is in the Running: A Remarkable Story (Paperback)

By A D Satterfield

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Based on true events, this book tells the story about a man doing his best to give students a greater chance of succeeding in the ever changing world. He works as a High School Principal at a place called Crazy Horse School located on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in western South Dakota. He worked there three years experiencing much emotional drama as he navigates through many heartwarming and terrifying situations. Some people are his closest allies and some are foes. As time progresses he realizes it is a high stakes game he has gotten herself into. The future of his students and his integrity hang in the balance. In the middle of all the chaos there is always a burning hope of a brighter tomorrow. Stress for him is nonexistent at the start, but he quickly realizes the toll it is taking on his mind and body. In the end, he finally gets to drive away from the school for the last time, in the back of an ambulance, knowing, he has, made a difference.
