

End-of-life care: Promoting comfort, choice and well-being for older people (Paperback)

By Jane Seymour, Ros Witherspoon, Merryn Gott

Policy Press, United Kingdom, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This report explores the current state of end-of-life care policy and practice in the UK. It focuses in particular on the experiences of older people and incorporates their views and the views of carers. Drawing on a comprehensive literature review, analysis of data from an ESRC-funded study, and the outcomes of a consultation exercise with older people hosted by Help the Aged, the report identifies the range of patterns and circumstances of death and dying in old age; outlines the current policy and practice context; compares the experiences of older people who receive specialist palliative care and those who do not; and explores key issues in older people's accounts of death, dying and bereavement, including their practical, social and spiritual concerns. The issues raised in the report will feed into current debates such as those around palliative health and end-of-life care, and right-to-die legislation.

READ ONLINE
[ 8.49 MB ]

Reviews

I just started out looking at this ebook. This can be for those who state there had not been a worthy of reading through. You can expect to like the way the blogger publish this ebook.

-- Dr. Freddie Greenholt Jr.

Good electronic book and valuable one. It generally is not going to charge an excessive amount of Its been developed in an remarkably straightforward way and is particularly simply following i finished reading this ebook through which really transformed me, change the way i think.

-- Mr. Domenic Eichmann