Excerpt from Thousands Meet to Demand Action for Belgium Now: First of Country-Wide Protest Gatherings Asks Government to Act at Once Three thousand persons, in mass meeting assembled in Carnegie Hall last night, called upon the Government of the United States to protest with all its force and earnestness against Germany s forced enslavement of Belgian men, who, against the military fortunes of their own country and over the protests of neutral nations, are being compelled to work within the German Empire. The meeting was called to act on Cardinal Mercier s recent appeal to the civilized world, and at its conclusion adopted these resolutions.
