Mount Beauty was now surmounted. Its toj*j>o. t acclivity was behind me. There was also a mental release from that unbroken exercise of intuition which had been necessary in solving the conjugal problem; and while wending my way toward the future valley, I had an inward joy and tranquillity transcending speech. It is true that many trials had sauntered arm in arm across my mountain path, and looked assassin-like upon me; and it is also true that I had walked to the measure of celestial music which enchanted the air and enraptured my spirit. But twas the Magic Staff, and not the melody alone, which enabled me to convert every interloping trial and adversary into a minister of personal development. And my soul was of necessity very still; for its inward glee of gratitude to Father-God would not flow into words. Hence I could not be interesting in social intercourse. The friends would call upon me, however, and I had no heart to deny them entrance. They wished to express a kindly word, or to ask questions on various subjects. These visitors were all beloved. Yet more attractive were those tokens of exalted wisdom that floated hourly down from regions of thought and philosophy. Three days did my soul yearn to be away from external sounds and sufferings. This will not appear strange to the reader who; keeps in remembrance the impressible power that I possess to feel another...
