Tate Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Perfect Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. Before God chooses to use someone in the earth, he has already proven them to be servant worthy. Servant Worthy reveals the needed loyalty as well as the commitment level of anyone who is called to ministry. Speaking from thirty-nine years of successful cutting-edge ministry as a pastor, author Johnny Willis gives fresh new insight on what God is looking for today before one can expect the release of Gods anointing upon their lives to accompany their call. Servant Worthy gives a invigorating look at a recurring theme throughout the Bible, how God proves the heart of a person before considering them for service. David, weary with fighting had a nostalgic moment and voiced his thirst for water from the well in Bethlehem. Three of his soldiers heard the desire of their king and decreed: If my king wants water from Bethlehem, He shall have it. These three men broke through the enemy territory putting their lives in jeopardy. Their loyalty to the call of serving their king meant more to them than the value of their individual lives. They performed a selfless act that encouraged the King and turned the tide for Israels future. The beginning of being useable to great leaders, great breakthroughs, and great moments in your life comes when you stop saying no to Gods calling in your life and allow his will to become yours! Johnny Willis is an ordained minister with a doctorate in theology from Springs of Life Bible College. Having a ministry that now spans four decades, his technique for teaching and mentorship strengthens the church as well as the leader. Servant Worthy is the leaders choice as a training tool with perfect biblical examples of true...
