Levels of Care for Welfare of Its Employees (Paperback)

By Hilton Bullard

Dorrance Publishing Co., United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Levels of Care for Welfare of Its Employees provides information to readers concerning various levels of care demonstrated by the employer for welfare of its employees. The theme, though, of levels of care exhibited, is really for the benefit of employees! Because much attention is placed on maintaining certain levels of productivity, subsequently profits coupled with enhancing levels of customer care, this may suggest the underlying benefit is for the employer. During tenure in the workplace, many employees are heard asking if the employer really cares for their welfare. It seems to be the norm for employees of various entities not to receive a share of profits, hence a concern for many employees. However, the employer does offer its employees many other benefits, together with other acts of care for their welfare. It is therefore imperative for readers to recognize and appreciate many levels of care demonstrated by the employer for its employees. Readers may also be inclined to explore avenues with a view of developing the whole man. About the Author Dr. Hilton Bullard is actively involved in helping...
